Pastor's EASTER MESSAGE

All Is Possible!

I'll admit it. Of all of the duties of a pastor, the Christmas and Easter sermons are the hardest for me. There's an unspoken pressure to "deliver" on those days especially because, quite frankly, they are the two biggest audiences all year. AND they are also the two times a year when pastors believe we can "hook," a few people who do not come every week to give us another try. We would all like to think that our words have the power to melt hearts and change lives. However, I am going to take a novel approach this year. I'm going to let God do the heart-melting and Jesus, the changing of lives. The plain truth is that in the face of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ, there are no words that can be spoken or written that compare with the miracle of God at work in and through his Son, and by extension, all of creation....that means you and me as well!

When we look into the empty tomb of Easter we can see many things in the dark of that space. Among what we find is hope. Hope for this life and the next. I can't help but think when I reflect on the fact that Jesus Christ, who suffered the most brutal death ever recorded in history was not found in that grave. He was not missing, he was risen! God had taken all of the pain and hell of death and transformed it. God had turned the world on it's head because something that never, ever happened in the history of man and woman occurred. Death was defeated! The hope of Easter is two-fold. It tells us that the same God who raised Jesus from the dead will do the same for each one of us when we die. Really! Because of Easter we can hope for a life which is changed, but not ended. We can believe that our lives, (with all of the pain and suffering we experience) have meaning and that we will live forever! That's quite a big deal!

We can also draw hope from resurrection in our everyday lives as they are now from Easter. As we already said, God has turned the world upside down for His Son. Easter gives us that hope that the God of all possibilities can and will transform the world for every believer here and now. Easter tells us that the impossible is possible. That true change and transformation of any situation is not only a dream, but a reality with God. It does not mean a life free of pain and suffering here and now. Instead, from those experiences are full of meaning, even if hidden from us at the time.

So when that question is asked of us this Easter day, "Do you believe in the Resurrection of the Dead, and the life of the world to come?" Join with me in a chorus of resounding "Yes!" In the face of the Resurrection, in the Face of an Empty Tomb, our only response can be that "Yes!" That "I believe!" May all the possibilities of Easter be open to you this day and always. With the Love and Joy of Christ,

—Father Joe

The mass will be celebrated at our 5:30 pm Mass on Sunday, May 7th. There will be young people from across the Diocese present at this special Eucharist to pray for Vocations. There will also be a chance for the young people to meet with the Bishop after the mass in the Parish Hall. Everyone is most welcome to attend the Mass. This is quite an honor for our parish community. Please make our Bishop feel the warmth and vitality of Seton. And if you know of any high school or college age young man who you think may have a vocation to priesthood, please let the pastor know as soon as possible. It doesn't mean we will take them away to seminary right away. We would just like to identify the gifts that are out there.
