The new parking lot behind the church is open and ready for business, just in time for the festival! This will allow a "few more cars" to park for our masses and events. Please begin using immediately.

NOT SO DISTANT IN THE FUTURE...

Sidewalk repairs and the School (Gym) side staircases repairs, repointing of the front of the Church building will commence. As you are aware, our buildings and grounds need constant attention so that "little problems," don't become "big headaches." Thank you for all your cooperation.

SOCIAL CONCERNS COMMITTEE

The fourth guiding principle of Catholic Social Tradition emphasizes the importance of caring for those less fortunate; specifically, the option for the poor and vulnerable. Based upon teachings from both the Old and New Testaments, no one is to be marginalized or overlooked because of their perceived lower social or economic status. Rather, the needs of those with fewer resources should be foremost in the community's thoughts and actions.

The Social Concerns Committee is collecting the following needed items for the Holy Family Food Pantry: jelly, small boxes or bags of rice, instant mashed potatoes, & peanut butter. The collection box is located in the church vestibule. Thank you for your generosity!

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL –Mighty Fortress.. In Jesus, the Victor is Won!
