

THE SETON SENTINEL

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish

"I tell you, ask and you will receive;
seek and you will find;
knock and the door will be opened to you.
For everyone who asks, receives;
and the one who seeks, finds;
and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened."

Luke 11:9-10

Parish News

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL is planned for this week, July 29th through August 2nd, from 9AM-12Noon. Registration forms are available on the table at the church entrance, at the rectory office and you may download the form online at setonpa.com.

PARISH MISSION APPEAL

Next weekend Sister Terrisan, a missionary nun will make the annual Missions Appeal in our Parish. A second collection will be taken up for the missions. Thank you in advance for your kindheartedness.

CARRYING THE GIFTS

At each weekend and holy day mass, we ask two people to bring up the gifts in the offertory procession. If mass is being offered for your family member or someone you know, we ask that you sign the book at the entrance of the church so we do not go looking for someone else to carry the gifts. If, however, the ushers do ask you, please consider this humble request on behalf of the community. You are being asked to be the representative of the whole assembly for that mass for we each in our own way present the bread and wine of our hearts and souls to be consecrated at the mass. Please do not refuse if you are asked. If you are not able to because of physical limitations, it is understandable.

USHERS

Please start the procession down to the priest immediately when all are ready to go. Don't wait for the priest to get up and come down, he will meet the procession at the front.

The next monthly meeting for SEAS Knights of Columbus will be held on Tuesday, August 13th, at 7pm, in the church hall.

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (Cycle C)

Genesis 18:20-32

Psalm 138:1-3, 6-8

Colossians 2:12-14

Luke 11:1-13

Though we be "but dust and ashes," we can presume to draw near and speak boldly to our Lord, as Abraham dares in this week's First Reading.

But even Abraham - the friend of God (see Isaiah 41:8), our father in the faith (see Romans 4:12) - did not know the intimacy that we know as children of Abraham, heirs of the blessings promised to his descendants (see Galatians 3:7,29).

The mystery of prayer, as Jesus reveals to His disciples in this week's Gospel, is the living relationship of beloved sons and daughters with their heavenly Father. Our prayer is pure gift, made possible by the "good gift" of the Father - the Holy Spirit of His Son. It is the fruit of the New Covenant by which we are made children of God in Christ Jesus (see Galatians 4:6-7; Romans 8:15-16).

Through the Spirit given to us in Baptism, we can cry to Him as our Father - knowing that when we call He will answer.

Jesus teaches His disciples to persist in their prayer, as Abraham persisted in begging God's mercy for the innocent of Sodom and Gomorrah.

For the sake of the one just Man, Jesus, God spared the city of man from destruction (see Jeremiah 5:1; Isaiah 53), "obliterating the bond against us," as Paul says in this week's Epistle.

On the Cross, Jesus bore the guilt of us all, canceled the debt we owed to God, the death we deserved to die for our transgressions. We pray as ones who have been spared, visited in our affliction, saved from our enemies.

We pray always a prayer of thanksgiving, which is the literal meaning of Eucharist. We have realized the promise of this week's Psalm: We worship in His holy temple, in the presence of angels, hallowing His name.

In confidence we ask, knowing that we will receive, that He will bring to completion what He has done for us - raising us from the dead, bringing us to everlasting life along with Him.

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Kids naturally want to do things for themselves and so will often ask mom or dad to "show me how" to do things, from tying their shoes to driving a car. We teach kids how to play games, how to read, how to ride a bike and how to clean their room. But the best teaching does not come by way of explanation, but by example. Kids mimic what they see and hear their parents do. And they learn those lessons so well. Ever hear a three-year-old use some interesting language? Some lessons are taught, and others are caught!

There are many ways that we teach. We mentor, instruct, direct, demonstrate, explain and assist. But when it comes to faith, the most important of all is witness. The best lessons we teach are the ones that we practice as we preach! Good example is the most powerful tool. If I want my children to be truthful, I cannot lie, even little 'white lies.' If I want them to be honest, I cannot cheat. If I want them to be holy, I must have my own relationship with the Lord and be genuine in my beliefs. I have to pray, receive the sacraments and participate in my parish. We teach kids to do so many things so well; let's include our faith. Make your life the best answer to the unspoken request: Show me!
